

English Faculty London Residential – 4th – 6th July 2011

On Monday 4th July, Ms. Parry, Miss Conway, Mr. Mackay, Mrs. Branagan and Mrs. Crawford, ventured to London, for a three day visit, with 40 pupils from Ormesby School.

An exciting, action packed itinerary of workshops, theatre visits and a flight on the London Eye was in place.

“Blood Brothers” at the Phoenix Theatre had the group laughing out loud and subsequently crying as the tragedy unfolded.

Our tour guide illustrated the history of The Globe Theatre and the exhibition showcased costumes, props and cubicles where pupils could record their voices reading excerpts from Shakespeare’s plays.

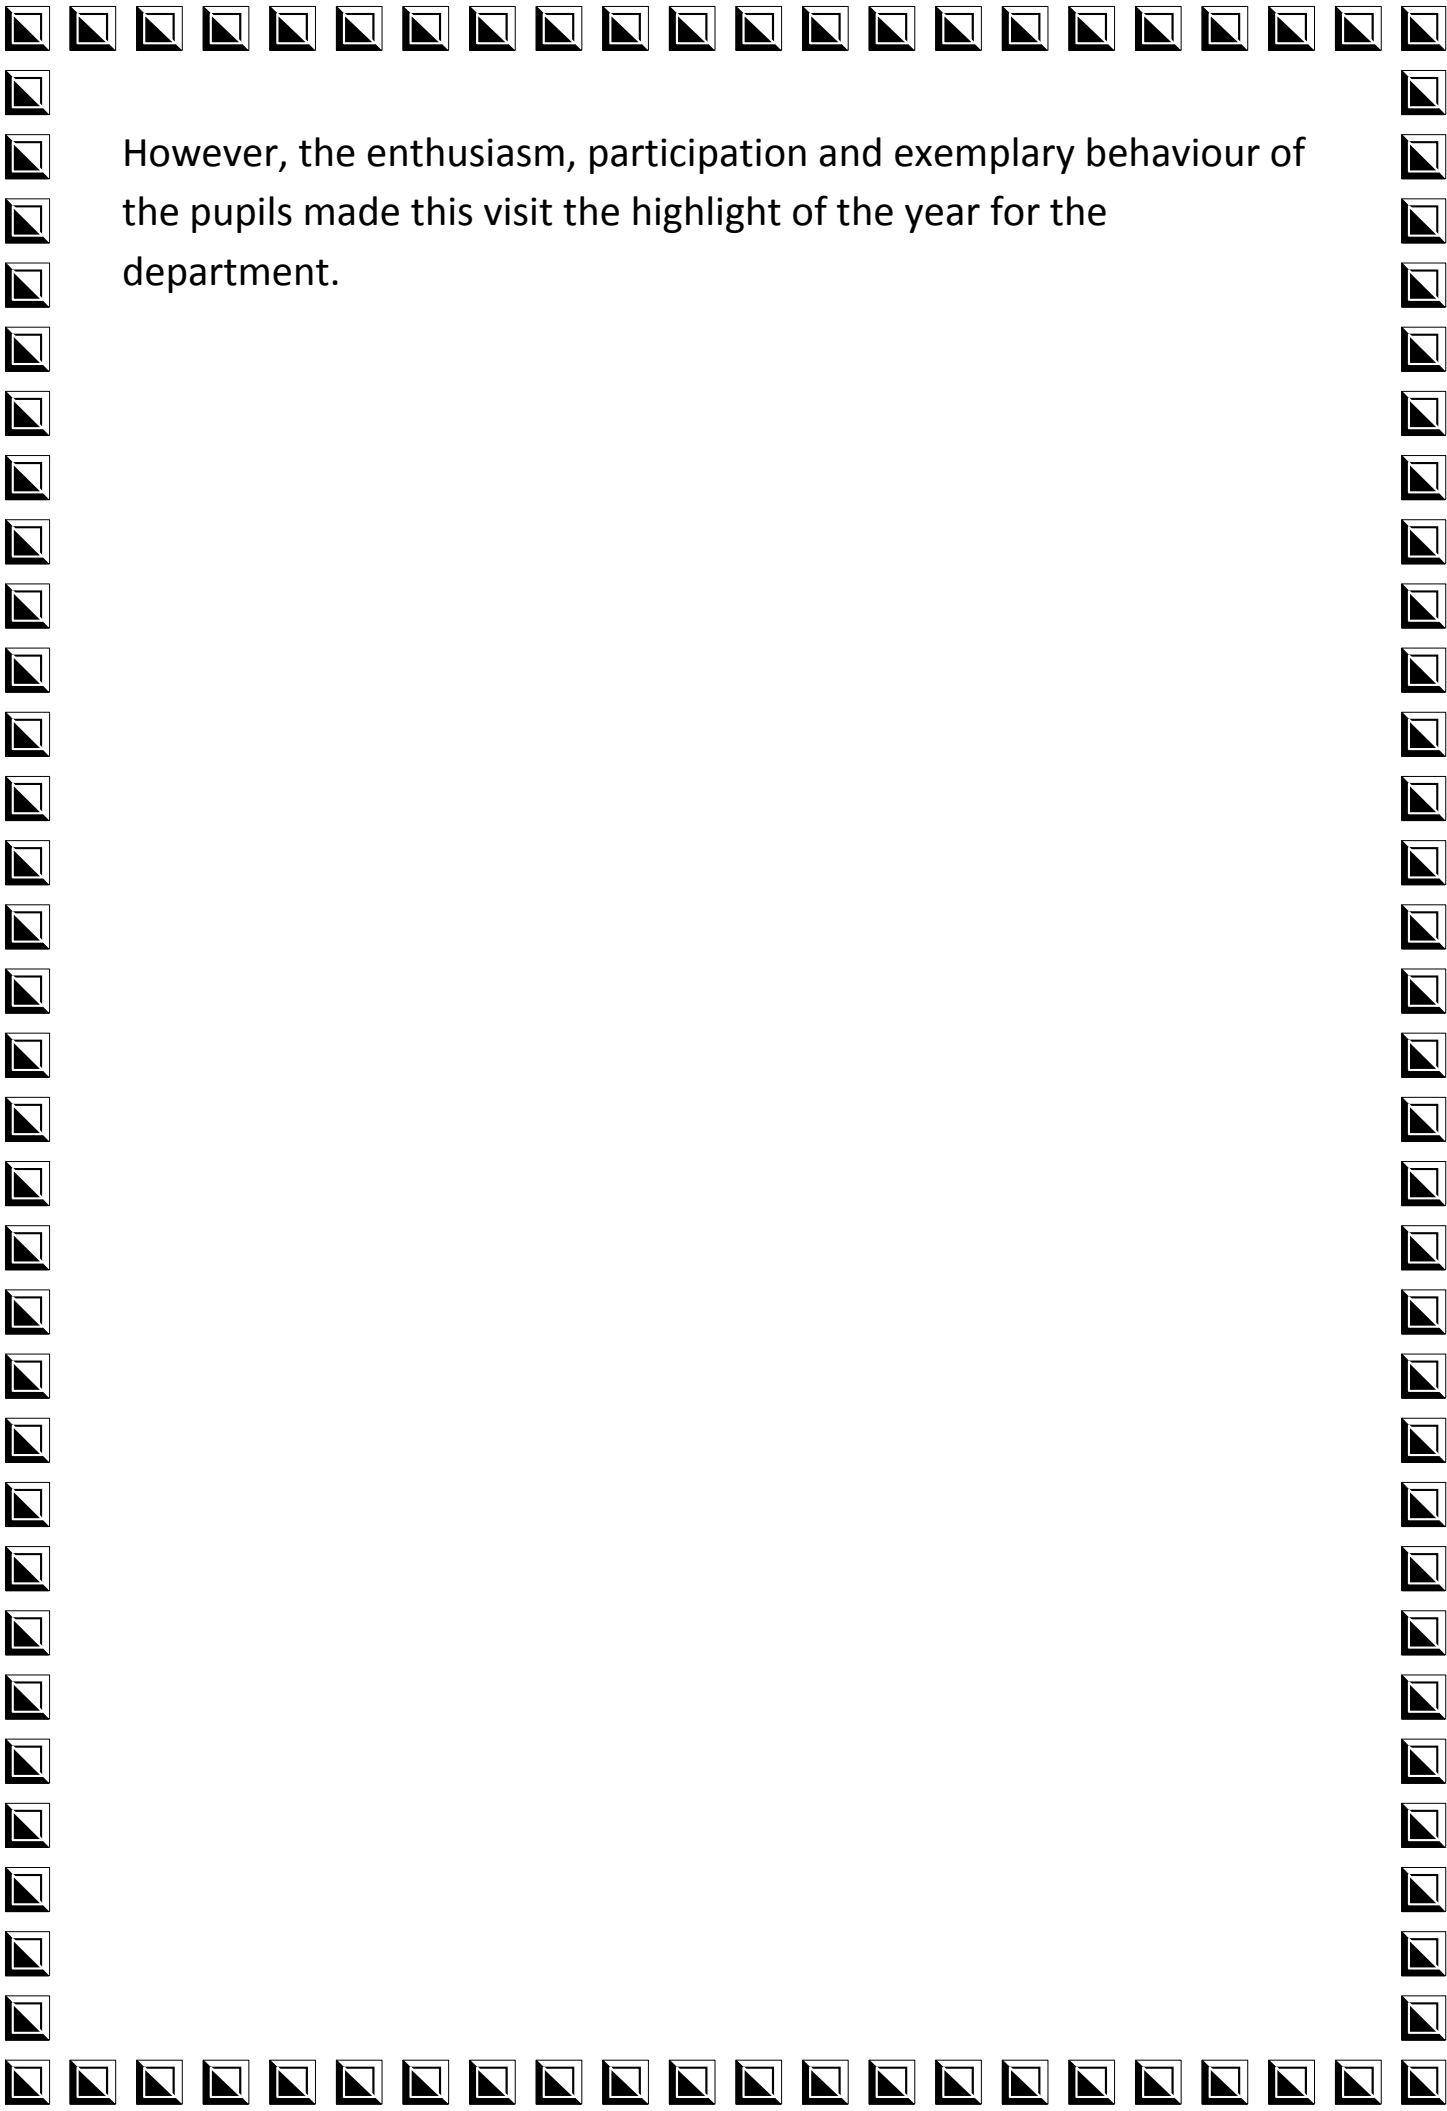

“The Lion King” at the Lyceum Theatre was a stunningly visual, spectacular show which amazed everyone with the colours, animals, music and scenery.

Stage Combat workshop at Pineapple Dance Studio and the interview with an actor from “The Lion King” allowed students to showcase their “acting” skills.

The flight on the London Eye provided outstanding views of London landmarks.

However, the enthusiasm, participation and exemplary behaviour of the pupils made this visit the highlight of the year for the department.
